Islamic School Rules and Regulations

Students and parents are expected to adhere to the following:

- Students are expected to maintain an atmosphere that is conducive to learning and Islamic behavior. Parents are urged to emphasize the importance of education, respect for teachers, the need for spiritual and physical cleanliness, decency in dress, and Islamic behavior.
- Any act of misconduct or disrespect by a student may be cause for a warning or suspension from school. Three warnings can result in the suspension of the student for the rest of the year.
- Lunch Time Rules:
No throwing food, use appropriate table manners, remain seated while eating, clean up after eating, speak in soft voices
- Homework Rules:
Students MUST turn in all homework assignments on time with the parent's signature. Failure to do so will result in the student spending his/her break time completing the assignment and having his/her parents notified.
- Attendance Rules:
Attendance is VERY important. Not only it is difficult for a student who routinely absent from the School to learn, but repeated absence also disturbs the continuity of the School for the other students.
All students are expected to attend the School every week, unless they have a valid reason to be absent. If a student misses 3 consecutive weeks, or more, of School, they will be asked to return the next School year or to demonstrate that they can complete the missed work and that they had a valid reason for their absence.
- Late Pick-Up Policy:
All students must be picked up at the end of school (1:30 pm) any student who is not picked up by the close of the school will be charged $5.00 fees for each 10 minutes late. Five occurrences of being late will be ground for termination of student enrollment.

A student's job is to learn, be safe & have fun! A teacher's job is to help children be safe & to help them learn in fun ways!

The Islamic School Committee shall establish procedures to guarantee that all rules are followed.

I wish to enroll my student in Week End Islamic School and I have read, understood and accepted the school rules. I commit to volunteer at least twice a year in my child classroom.
